SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

APRIL 8 - 13 2013

All Returning Students:
Grand Marshal - The Grand Marshal is the highest elected office in RPI Student Government, serving as the leader and chief spokesperson for the Union. The GM presides over the Student Senate, the chief legislative and representative body of the Union. The GM has regular meetings with Institute officials and serves on a number of Institute committees. The time commitment required for this position is substantial. For more information, contact the current Grand Marshal at gm@rpi.edu.

President of the Union - The President of the Union presides over the Executive Board, the budgeting group of the Union, and is the chief financial officer of the Union. The PU appoints most of the members of the Executive Board. Like the GM, the PU is in close contact with Institute officials. The time commitment for this office is also substantial. For more information, contact the current President of the Union at pu@rpi.edu.

Elected Positions
Classes of 2012, 2013 and 2014:
Class President - The Class President is responsible for organizing their Class Council, protecting and upholding the bylaws established for their Class Council, organizing class activities, and calling and presiding over Class Council meetings. For more information, contact the President of the Undergraduate Council at uc@union.rpi.edu.
Class Vice President - The Class Vice President will assume the duties of the President in his or her absence, and assists the President in his or her duties. For more information, contact the President of the Undergraduate Council at uc@union.rpi.edu.
Senators (4) - The Senate is the chief legislative and representative body of the Union, presided over by the Grand Marshal. It consists of six graduate senators, four senators from each undergraduate class, a senator from the Independent Council, and a senator representing the Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils. Each senator must serve on at least two committees or chair one committee of the Senate. Weekly time commitment is at least five to eight hours per week in addition to Class Council or Graduate Council commitments. For more information, contact the Grand Marshal at gm@rpi.edu.

Class Representatives (8) - The Class Council is responsible for establishing a class constitution, appointing representatives to the Undergraduate Council, planning activities and fundraisers, designing a class ring, selecting a commencement speaker and class gift, planning Senior Week events, and representing the entire class to the rest of student government. Eight Class Representatives are elected, though more students may apply for membership-at-large to a council. For more information, contact the President of the Undergraduate Council at uc@union.rpi.edu.

Independent Council Representatives (3) - The Independent Council (IC) represents all students not affiliated with a social fraternity or sorority. Members of any social fraternity or sorority can not run for or vote for a position on the Independent Council. The IC is comprised of three representatives from each undergraduate class and three representatives from the graduate class. The main functions of the IC are organizing social events and to represent the independent community to the rest of student government. Time commitment is approximately two hours per week as a minimum. Contact the President of the IC for more information at ic@union.rpi.edu.

Elected Positions Class of 2011:
Alumni President / Reunion Chair - The President is the leader of the Class and is responsible for administration of class business and class spirit. As Reunion Chair, the President should be set to begin at the appropriate time to work with the Reunion Vice Chair and the Alumni Office to recruit a planning committee and help to plan Reunion Weekend to be held every five years.

Alumni Vice President / Reunion Vice Chair - The Vice President works closely and shares the responsibilities for maintaining class spirit and planning the next reunion with the Alumni Class President.

Alumni Secretary / Reunion Networking Coordinator - The Secretary will receive the list of class members and will set up appropriate networks for the purpose of maintaining contact with classmates between reunions.

To see a list of the GM week committee members along with the history of GM Week, see our website at gmweek.union.rpi.edu. For more information on the elected positions and candidates, visit elections.union.rpi.edu.

Alumni Treasurer / Reunion Gift Chair - Primary responsibilities include correspondence to classmates regarding the class gift, recruiting other classmates to help with networking, and soliciting class members. RPI staff support comes from the Reunion Giving Program Manager who will arrange to have letters prepared and mailed, provide lists for networking, and opportunities for training.

Elected Positions for Graduates:

Senators (6) - The Senate is the chief legislative and representative body of the Union, presided over by the Grand Marshal. It consists of six graduate senators, four senators from each undergraduate class, a senator from the Independent Council, and a senator representing the Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils. Each senator must serve on at least one committee of the Senate. Weekly time commitment is at least five to eight hours per week in addition to Graduate Council commitments. For more information, contact the Grand Marshal at gm@rpi.edu.

Graduate Representatives (5) - The Graduate Council is responsible for representing graduate views. Five Class Representatives are elected, though more students may apply for membership-at-large to the Graduate Council. For more information contact the President of the Graduate Council at grad-council@rpi.edu.

Independent Council Representatives (3) - The Independent Council (IC) represents all students not affiliated with a social fraternity or sorority. Members of any social fraternity or sorority can not run for or vote for a position on the Independent Council. The IC is comprised of three representatives from each undergraduate class and three representatives from the graduate class. The main functions of the IC are organizing social events and to represent the independent community to the rest of student government. Time commitment is approximately two hours per week as a minimum. Contact the President of the IC for more information at ic@union.rpi.edu.
